The Macallan was founded 200 years ago by Alexander Reid on a plateau above the river Spey in North-East Scotland. The Macallan's exceptional whiskies are characterised from the time spent in the very best casks, ensuring 100% natural colour. With up to 80% of the flavour coming from sustainable oak casks, each one is individually sourced from the finest forests in two continents: America and Europe. Extraordinary raw materials combined with traditional methods and craftsmanship are the backdrop to

The Macallan's unique spirit.
